Hoping in What Is Seen

For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience. —Romans 8:24

At the beginning of the film “Horton Hears a Who!” the main character, Horton, who is an elephant, observes a speck of dust floating by him and hears a voice coming from it. Struggling with his own doubts about what he heard or not, he dashes off to save the speck of dust before it is destroyed by the jungle environment. Horton places the speck on a pink clover, examines it closer, and wonders if there really is somebody on the dust speck. While caught up in his thoughts, Horton is confronted by a skeptical Kangaroo who makes fun of him.

The Kangaroo says laughingly, “Absurd. There aren’t people that small.”

Horton replies, “Well, maybe they aren’t small...maybe...we’re BIG! ...What if there were some one way out there...looking down on our world right now? And to them, we’re the specks and then maybe someone else will come along and say, oh, there can’t be people that small.”

Kangaroo will not concede to Horton’s view. “If you can’t see, hear or feel something, it doesn’t exist.”

This film clip was how the Family Ministries Committee launched a new program last September called “Bibles and Bagels” for youth in grades 5 through 12. Church School for these youth begins in the Roof Lounge with bagels, cream cheese, muffins, and orange juice while youth watch a short film clip. A ten-minute discussion follows, which is led by volunteers or myself each Sunday that youth Church School meets. This program was an overwhelming success with the youth and the leaders and it was an easy choice to continue it in the coming year.

Paul and Horton seem to be on the same page about believing in what we do not see, but our efforts with the youth program are grounded very heavily in what is seen. Take, for example, the integration of Bibles and Bagels into our curriculum and a new part of the youth program for 2010-2011 called “Worship at the Movies.” This program for youth in grades 8 through 12 will be a once-a-month worship service that will contain the traditional elements of worship—a call to worship, confessional prayer, scripture reading, prayers, and benediction—and also a sermon in the form of a 10-15 minute video clip followed by a discussion of the film’s connection to the scripture.

We may be putting our hope in what is seen on the big screen, but the youth program’s growth this year has been inspirational. Leadership from members Anne Gray and Anne Gaines with another new aspect of the youth program called “Youth Service Fellowship” for 5th-12th graders has had numerous highlights this year. You have most recently seen their work in the Help for Haiti t-shirts that they designed, silk-screened and sold to raise money for earthquake relief. They also had an amazing event where they cooked dinner for the men staying at the homeless shelter; the fun they had making dinner together, eating with the families and serving the men at the shelter. We have waited with patience, and are seeing that for which we have hoped. So as we move into next year’s youth program, perhaps Paul’s words from Philippians can be our inspiration:

Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen, and the God of peace will be with you. —Philippians 4:9

FISH OUT OF WATER
Tuesday, June 22 at 6:30 p.m.
followed by a discussion with Kellie Anderson-Picallo,
Auburn Media

Fish Out of Water is a genre-bending feature documentary that uses animation and academic interviews to dissect the seven Bible verses used to condemn homosexuality and justify marriage discrimination. Director Ky Dickens shows, through animated illustrations of the oft-quoted Bible passages and revelatory commentary on them by celebrated scholars, that the Bible is misinterpreted and misquoted regarding same-sex relationships. Fish Out of Water explodes the conventional arguments of hate. By using original animation as its tool for exploring the Bible, Fish Out of Water approaches this controversial topic in a fresh new way.

Kellie Anderson-Picallo is the Associate for Media and Education at Auburn Media, a center of Auburn Theological Seminary. Auburn Media serves to help faith leaders and faith educators resource media to bring stories of justice, peacemaking and healing into their religious communities. She has an M.Div from Union Theological Seminary and was a former producer for PBS and Discovery Channel.

JUNE-DECEMBER: IT'S BEGINNING TO LOOK A LOT LIKE ... CHRISTMAS?

We Presbyterians take the long view, so we know that now is the time to send donations for this year's Tartan Christmas (December 3, 4, and 5). For the Fair's Silent Auction, we especially need your silver, china, art work and antiques. Or, can you donate tickets to plays or sporting events, computer lessons, dog-walking, dinner for six at your home, or special personal services? If so, contact Rebecca Brown (rader0703@gmail.com). For the White Elephant and Book sales, we need your gently used housewares and books. Bring them to church any weekday (from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.) or Sundays.

This summer, after several of the Wednesday evening barbecues and on some Saturday mornings, we'll be sorting and pricing the Books and White Elephant donations. If you can help with Books, please contact Diana Pardue at diana_pardue@nps.gov; to help with White Elephant donations, contact Jane Ritter at jmr719@aol.com.

And Santa's crafty elves take note: We will have a summer craft-making night after the cookout on Wednesday, July 21. Mark your calendar! Let Ellie Garlow at ellie2@nyc.rr.com know if you can make it.

Want to be part of our planning? Our next Tartan Fair Committee meeting (pizza provided) will be on Wednesday, June 9—right after the first Summer BBQ!

ART AT FIRST: Amelia's Birds

Last month in the Great Hall, Art at First sponsored Amelia's Birds, a solo exhibition of limited-edition photographs by nine-year-old Amelia Scheffs-Bevington. Reserved and watchful, Amelia is a girl of few words. Her photographs, however, speak volumes. Her passion for photography is fueled mainly by her love of animals of all kinds. "With a picture," she says, "you can hold them forever." Amelia is a native New Yorker and thoroughly enjoys all of the local parks, zoos, and aquariums. She is a lifetime member of First Church and was baptized here in 2001. If you missed Amelia's exhibit, would like to learn more about Amelia, or are interested in purchasing her artwork, please visit www.theameliaappeal.org.

DEACONS' BABY SHOWERS

The Deacons of First Church are again sponsoring a baby shower for the New York Foundling Hospital on Sunday, June 20 (Fathers' Day). The Mothers' Day baby shower on May 9 was a great success, and the hospital was deeply appreciative of your generosity. Thank you for your support. For gifts to support the Fathers' Day baby shower, look for the baby stroller in the lobby of the Mellin-Macnab

Building after Sunday church services on June 6, 13, and 20, and drop off your gifts on or next to the stroller. Gifts must be new and may be wrapped or unwrapped. Virtually anything for infants, small children, or new mothers/fathers can be donated. This year, Foundling Hospital has a specific need for umbrella strollers, toys with lights and sound, and assorted batteries for toys. Other possible gifts include infant/small children's clothing, blankets, and diapers. Gift cards for new fathers also are welcome.
